Preservation of Documents

1. PREAMBLE

The Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 were notified on 2nd September, 2015 requiring the Board of Directors of the Company to frame a Policy for Preservation of Documents.

Regulation 9 required the Board of Directors of the Company to have a policy for preservation of documents, approved by its board of directors, classifying them in at least two categories as follows:

- (a) documents whose preservation shall be permanent in nature; and
- (b) documents with preservation period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions.

During the course of Business the Company generates enormous documents either in physical or electronic mode out of which some are of utmost importance and is to be referred at any time during the life of the Company; however there are other documents which are to be referred only for a specified period or till the completion of an assignment. In order to have a clear distinction between the documents to be preserved permanently and for a specific period there has to be a policy to preserve the documents. It is also necessary to have such a policy in place to access the records without putting timeless efforts to retrieve the required documents at ease.

Accordingly the Board of Directors of GeeCee Ventures Limited (the “Company”) has adopted this Policy for preservation of documents.

2. SCOPE AND APPLICABILITY

This Policy is applicable to all the Documents maintained in physical and electronic mode in the Company. The executives responsible to handle the respective work will be accountable to preserve the documents as are generated while performing the work.

Preservation of Documents

The Documents not covered under this policy shall be preserved and maintained in accordance with the provisions of the respective acts, rules, guidelines and regulations as applicable under which those documents are maintained.

3. CUSTODY OF THE DOCUMENTS

*The Chief Financial Officer shall be responsible for maintaining and preserving documents at the Head Office and at the Site Offices respectively. In case of resignation or transfer of the above mentioned persons, such person shall hand over all the relevant Documents, lock and key, access control or password, or other storage devices or such other Documents and devices in his possession to other persons as may be identified by the Board of Directors.

Authority changed w.e.f 23rd May, 2018*

4. FORM OF MAINTAINING DOCUMENTS

Unless specifically provided in any law or regulation the Company shall at its discretion maintain the Documents in Physical or Electronic mode depending upon the significance of the Document. Further the Company may convert the physical documents in electronic mode to ensure ease in maintenance of records and efficient utilization of space.

5. DESTRUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

After the expiry of the statutory retention period the preserved documents may be destroyed in such mode as found to be appropriate by the authorised person. Destruction of documents as a normal administrative practice will also be followed for the records which are duplicate/ unimportant/ irrelevant. This will apply to both physical and electronic documents.

6. DOCUMENTS

For the purpose of this policy the term “Documents” shall mean summons, papers, notes, agreements, notices, advertisement, requisitions, order, declarations, forms, correspondence, minutes, indices, registers and or any other record, required under or in order to comply with the requirements of any applicable law, whether issued, sent, for the time being in or otherwise, maintained on paper or in electronic form received or kept in pursuance of the Act or under any other law and does not include multiple or identical copies.
